Tuesday 9th April 2019

10am - 4pm

The Spark

Solent University, Southampton

Chrysalis, the South’s leading charity supporting transgender people and their significant others, would like to invite you to get involved in our second conference showcasing strategies and best practice for supporting transgender people in the workplace and beyond.

2018 saw a significant rise in online and media transphobic speech from a very vocal few however behind the scenes organisations and individuals continued to work tirelessly to improve inclusivity and acceptance.

We invite you to put forward a workshop or speaker proposal talking about the great work you are doing in your organisation to break down the barriers trans people experience. A space to enable others to learn from your challenges and the opportunities they created.

Please submit your statement of interest and a brief outline of your workshop or presentation to dawn.harding@chrysalis-gii.org by Monday 7th January 2019 for consideration.

We look forward to hearing from you, if you have any questions please contact Dawn or me on 01489 589111

Kind regards,
